Dear Mr. Powers:

I am writing to follow up on your January 31, 2008 letter.

While I appreciate your correspondence, and it appears to be that you are seeking my assistance, I must advise you that anytime I represent inmates, I am appointed by the Federal Courts. In other words, the Federal Court appoints me as counsel for inmates on a case by case basis. Therefore, I am not hired directly by individuals, and I cannot assist you at this point in time.

I would encourage you to work through the court system to secure a court appointed attorney.

I apologize for the delay in responding and wish you only the best in the future.

Sincerely,

Michling Hofmann Vinton Plaza & Wick PC

Re: Civil Rights Claim

Dear Mr. Powers:

As a result of my work with Hepatitis C inmates, I do not have sufficient time to assist you. Further, I have no experience whatsoever in Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act of 2000 cases. Thank you for considering our firm to be of service, but I must decline this employment.

Very truly yours,
